Section 3: Segment 16

Topic 2. “Ride ‘Em, Rope ‘Em, Brand ‘Em”; “Betroth ‘Em, Marry ‘Em, Belong To ‘Em”

- List some character traits the potential spouse of each of your children should have that would help that person be their suitable life partner.

---

---

---

- Were you pursued wholeheartedly by the man who wanted you as his life partner? Describe your courtship.

---

---

---

---

- Did you and your fiancé discuss how you would work together to reflect Jesus as a couple, and raise a generation of children to love and to serve God? Yes or No? If no, how did you prepare for marriage?

---

---

---

---

- In light of the 2-spouted Native American wedding vase, describe whether you and your spouse have been mixed together under times of stress, or separated emotionally. Do you each pour out “an essence” of the other through counsel or action?

---

---

---

---

- You both know each of your parents. Discuss together ahead of time: Who will provide godly advice? And, under what circumstances should you involve them when problems arise?

---

---

---

---

- Is there someone older and wiser in your extended spiritual family who can provide godly counsel if your parents aren't available? Do they know you adequately to be a resource for you? Have you asked if they'd be willing?
